RE: ICTs 4 Development Conference 2012

I hope this letter finds you well. We cordially invite you to participate in the 3rd International ICTs 4 Development Conference to be held in Kibugat ICT Centre in Bureti Constituency in Kenya. The three-day conference is scheduled to take place on the 26th-28th October 2012. The event will be organized in partnership with IT Skills 4 Rural Kenya, International Youth Council Chapter and KENTEL, among other partners.

Kibugat ICT centre is one of the digital village centers set up by IT4RK. The digital village centers are established in collaboration with respective local communities and monitored by MODEL-I.T.U

This year, our theme is “Technology and Peace for Diverse Voices”. This conference seeks to give them a voice in the community to showcase their multimedia creations, talents aspirations and hope for a Kenya they would like to be associated with; one that is peaceful and full of opportunities, through basic application of basic technologies. It is also aimed at promotion of digital villages and community resources centers as initiatives for capacity building, knowledge sharing, information dissemination and e-government services.

The Key Note Speaker and Facilitator will be Dr. Peter Day, Senior Lecturer, Arts and Media, University of Brighton, United Kingdom. The Conference Workshops will be delivered by experts in Community Informatics with specialist knowledge covering technology, development, education and the eradication of poverty.

Please find enclosed conference details including registration process and directions to Kibugat ICT Centre. Kindly, note that there will be exhibition where the participants can showcase their products, success stories, ICT applications and innovations among others.

We look forward to seeing you in Kibugat

Yours faithfully,

Michael Asudi (+254724511702)
