

TSD 4101: Software Developer

A startup technology firm is looking for a creative, self-driven, passionate and talented Software Developer for a temporary engagement that can lead to permanent basis. We transform ideas in to leading edge software solutions and products that impact growth and improve experience of our clients.

The organization is currently in its formative stage and currently seeking to create a strong and vibrant team able to deliver solutions in an agile fashion and in a fast paced environment.

Job Purpose:

- Analysis of user requirements, challenges and opportunities and preparing the necessary documentation.
- Responsible for designing, implementing & testing applications
- Provide 3rd line support for implemented solutions.

Software Developer Job Key Responsibilities;

- Interpret business requirements into technical specification.
- Develop software code based on documented specifications.
- Front end user interface design.
- Design database schema and creation of the necessary objects.
- Investigate, analyze, resolve and document reported software defects.
- Perform maintenance and patching for the correction of identified defects.
- Create, document, and implement unit test plans, scripts, and test schedules.
- Create and maintain technical documentation using defined technical documentation templates.
- Evaluate and identify technologies for implementation.
- Participate in Project Planning and Project Management.
- Constantly update technical knowledge and skills by attending in-house and/or external courses and through other formal and informal methods.
- Performs related duties as assigned.

Technical Requirements

At least 1 year experience with:

- PHP web development and scripting
- Proficient with html5, Ajax, CSS3. [Knowledge of AngularJS will be added advantage]
- Good knowledge of SOAP web services using [nusoap and PHP soap] and REST
- Working experience on XML and JSON data format
- Java development [J2EE will be more preferred]
- Android and IOS native mobile development
- Expertise in MySQL.
- Understanding of Oracle database – PLSQL
- Knowledge of Linux and apache web server configuration.

Qualifications

The candidate shall have the following competencies, skills and experience:

- Degree in computer science, information systems, Information Technology or related disciplines.
- Demonstrate Software Development experience using the technologies referred above.

How to Apply

Please forward your CV to techwiseke@gmail.com quoting the job title for the position you are applying for.

Kindly indicate the expected salary range in the application letter.

Deadline for submitting applications is: 4th December 2015 and only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

--