

Job title	Intern, Data Visualization based Projects
------------------	---

Job Purpose

To provide the technical skill needed in the implementation and deployment of Data Visualization based Projects through development of user-friendly software solutions and involvement in capacity building initiatives organized by @iLabAfrica Research Centre.

Who can apply?

Strathmore University Students with commendable interpersonal skills pursuing a Masters degree in Mobile Telecommunication and Innovation (MSc.MTI), Master of Science in Information Systems Security (MSc ISS), Master of Science in Information Technology (MSc. IT), Bachelor's degree in Informatics, Business and Information Technology (3rd or 4th year) or any other IT related part-time course.

Qualifications and Requirements

- Can develop robust , user-friendly Web Applications. Mobile Application development skills (preferably Android, Windows and/or iOS Apps.) is an added advantage.
- Data Warehouse management skills.
- Possess Analytical and Problem Solving skills with a keen attention to detail.
- Ability to work in a fast-paced, team environments.
- Ability to work under pressure with minimum supervision.
- Demonstrate ability to maintain confidentiality and handle sensitive issues.
- Ability learn new tools and technologies within very limited time.
- Good communication and interpersonal skills.
- Can work full-time.

PS: A monthly allowance shall be provided.

No. of Vacancies: 3 Positions

Deadline for sending applications

All those who meet the above qualifications and are interested in the positions can submit their applications (Cover letter and CVs) before June 22nd 2015.